

CWA

THE CRIME WRITERS' ASSOCIATION Dagger Award Winners 2016

The Diamond Dagger, for a career's outstanding contribution to crime fiction as nominated by CWA members, was awarded to Peter James

Goldsboro Gold Dagger

Sponsored by Goldsboro Books – for the best crime novel of the year

Bill Beverly with Dodgers

'ONE OF THE GREATEST LITERARY CRIME NOVELS YOU WILL READ IN YOUR LIFETIME' – DONALD RAY POLLOCK

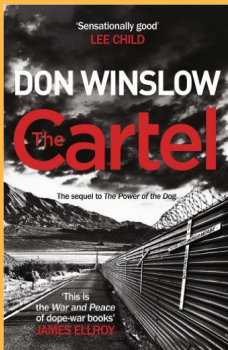

BILL BEVERLY
DODGERS

Ian Fleming Steel Dagger

Sponsored by Ian Fleming Publications Limited – for the best crime thriller of the year

Don Winslow with The Cartel

John Creasey (New Blood) Dagger

– for the best debut crime novel

Bill Beverly with Dodgers

'ONE OF THE GREATEST LITERARY CRIME NOVELS YOU WILL READ IN YOUR LIFETIME' – DONALD RAY POLLOCK

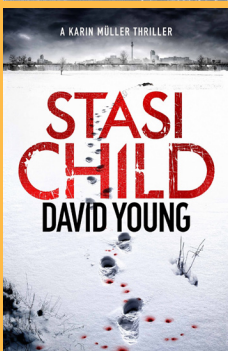

BILL BEVERLY
DODGERS

Endeavour Historical Dagger

Sponsored by Endeavour Press – for the best historical crime novel

David Young with Stasi Child

Gold Dagger for Non-Fiction

– for non-fiction crime

Andrew Hankinson with You Could Do Something Amazing With Your Life (You Are Raoul Moat)

Winner of a Northern Writers Award

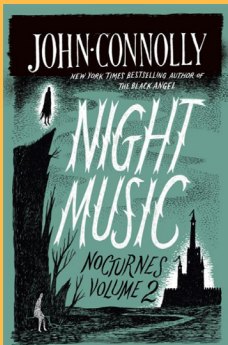

ANDREW HANKINSON

Short Story Dagger

– for a short crime story published in the UK

John Connolly with On the Anatomization of an Unknown Man (1637) by Frans Mier from Nocturnes 2: Night Music

International Dagger

– for crime fiction translated into English and published in the UK

Pierre Lemaître with The Great Swindle, translated by Frank Wynne

Dagger in the Library

– for the author of the most enjoyed collection of work in libraries

Elly Griffiths

Debut Dagger

Sponsored by Orion Books – for the opening of a crime novel by a writer with no publishing contract at time of submission

Mark Brandi with Wimmera

